The quiet ones! A previous client, a beautiful yet sad eyed teenage girl came in to the HELP center for a pregnancy test and ultra-sound. Terrified and uncertain of her future that stood before her she agreed and received peer-counseling the day of her first visit. Continuing on for several additional classes, communication was lost and we wondered what had become of her.

After years of silence, this sweet young woman lovingly dropped by the Helping Hands Clothing Ministry with a arm full of donations. In her giving heart she expressed with grateful appreciation that the items had gotten to small for her three (3) children and that she wanted to give back. God is so good! She also shared that she was happily married and that she would never forget how HELP Pregnancy Center navigated her and her entire family through the shame and disappointment of poor choices and an unplanned pregnancy. She shared the relief in not being judged and looked down upon, but only felt loved and cared for. She believed undeniably that the reassurance she received at HELP was what she needed to be the mom God called her to be.

Thank you HELP partners and friends!

A Sweet So-Long!

I would like to say a special farewell to the HELP Pregnancy Center family as Development Coordinator. I will be transitioning to a new position with my husband as we grow our family business. It was a difficult and prayerful decision however, I still plan to be a part of the mission of HELP as much as I can. Being a voice for the unborn will always be a cause that's near and dear to my heart. I thank God, as well as the donors, volunteers and staff who have become part of my extended family. Thank you for this amazing opportunity. Sincerely, Brandy Colson.
