Frequently Asked Questions

Who is Help Pregnancy?

Help Pregnancy Center is a Christ-centered, pro-life, ministry committed to helping women and men who find themselves in an unplanned or difficult pregnancy. We provide free and confidential services for these vulnerable families helping them choose life for their babies. We provide: pregnancy tests, limited ultrasounds, peer counseling, educational classes, clothes, diapers, formula, and baby equipment.

Why do we host this banquet?

Help Pregnancy Center operates on the funds donated by individuals, families, churches, and businesses local to Union County. This fundraising event accounts for raising 25% of annual budget.

Where does my sponsorship money go?

Sponsorship funds cover the cost of hosting the event and then go to the overall mission of Help Pregnancy Center. We do our very best to keep costs low so that more of your funds go directly to local women and babies in need.

Why should my business/church sponsor this event?

By sponsoring this event you:

- Showcase your commitment to the pro-life cause and contribute to building a culture of life.
- Receive enhanced brand visibility among a captive audience of community members, business leaders, and supporters.
- Have the opportunity to align your brand with a reputable and impactful pro-life ministry.
